

Bayside pavilion, originally called Barker's Restaurant, opened in 1921 & was owned by George & Fannie Baker.

One of the last Vermont country Roadhouses, it was a well-known summer destination. Known for dancing & light fare, Barker's was popular for its homemade hot dog & hamburger relish. Barker's Restaurant was passed on to their son, Bob Barker & his wife Thelma, who ran the restaurant until the late 1970's.

The restaurant closed for a short time until the mid-1980's, when local St. Albans dentist Ron Kaye bought it & changed the name to Bayside. With Chef Bob Santini in charge of the kitchen, Bayside was popular for its delicious barbecue ribs & chicken, but most of all for the Thursday night lobster special (which is still popular today). Live entertainment such as "The Boppers" which featured hometown favorite Deana Paquette, & "East Coast Muscle" with well-known blues guitarist Nobby Reed dominated the live music scene. Nobby is still rocking at the Bayside to this day!

In the late 1990's Bayside was sold to Mark & Annette Mongeon, who then sold the restaurant to the Lowe Family in 2001. With extensive renovations for the first time in 80 years, Bayside is now open for year-round enjoyment. Our Chef comes from a background of family restaurants, & brings a diverse menu of seafood, steak, soups & daily specials. Our four season location next to the picturesque shores of St. Albans Bay, with local memorabilia that adorns the walls, provides a family atmosphere for everyone to enjoy.
